What did NICOLAS BAUDIN and MATTHEW FLINDERS see, hear or say as they approached the Encounter Coast and each other's ship on April 8, 1802? What land shapes, flora or fauna, what weather, what vessels might they have seen? What might their meeting have been like?

Let your imagination do the rest. Simply put your entry into Front Office of your school by Friday, March 29 at 11.00am. Prizes & certificates will be awarded.

Criteria for awarding prizes:

- The degree to which idea(s) expressed relate(s) to the historical event or period in some way
- The degree to which the concept & design show creative thinking
- The degree to which the presentation is aesthetically pleasing

The celebration and giving of awards will be at Soldiers Memorial Gardens, Victor Harbor on 8 April after the raising of the flags at 4:00 pm.
